The Quitlapahilla

Published by the Junior Class

Foreword

Words never are able to express the purpose of the emotions,-- but,--In response to the spirit of Lebanon Valley College; in respect of her splendid past; in ardent support of her present conditions; and--in all fair hopes for her future welfare, have we placed our efforts upon this book. But not for this alone have we directed our efforts, but in order that events which have been common to each one of us might be the more cherished when they shall be sweet memories; that friendships which have been formed might be the truer; reminiscences the more vivid; and finally,--that our love for our Alma Mater might be the more sincere.

To The Quittapahilla

Flow on! O! Lovely streamlet,
On with the tide of time,
May we remember thee
In simplicity sublime.

O! Waters that are loved by all,
O! Memories that creep,
O! Fantasies that hold us
In our dreams of soundest sleep.

In happy hours we spent by thee,
You gave us joy and delight,
While lingering near thee in sunshine
Or under the pale moonlight.

Thy waters glow in the sunshine
Like gleaming gold it seems,
While at night across thy waters
Dance the fairy moonbeams.

O! How can we forget thee,
When we all love thee so well,
O! Little streamlet flowing,
What stories might you tell?

Soon must we part from thee,---
As into life's contest we go,
And into a race just begun.
O! oft may we think of thy race,--
A race,--That never is won.

C. M. R.

May thy glorious shades e'er sooth and calm,
As in the days gone on before,
The troubled minds and souls that pass through yonder door.

We admire the one whose art has molded thy majestic form,
But we honor far more the ones, who now within thy walls,
Hold the character of men and place within their grasp
New standards for their living.

The zephyrs which bear them are but the sweeter and more balmy
For having born the notes that thou dost give.

In profound silence thou speakest in the beauty and strength
Of many a mouldering mortal,
Whose pen has given thee thy beautiful wealth.

The laugh of joyful contentment e'er rings forth,
Amid the sighing of thy pines.

Each heart's as blithe within thee,
As each rose that breathes the fragrant air of Spring.

Oh, velvet-coated ivy, e'er sooth with thy modest tenderness
The contented restlessness that dwells within thy walls.

Oh Quiltie, Thou stream peerless,
In vain would Winter hold you in her splendor,---
But ever restless, you wander on
Into new fields of endeavor.

Ever coming; ever going, never gone,---
You linger a while beneath the pines,
To list unto their sighing and to hear and bear away
The cares of many a troubled heart.

How oft in sunshine and in the soft moonlight,
In Winter's beauty or Summer's shades,
Have youth and maiden, poet or lone philosopher
Strolled along thy peaceful glades.

And stealing forth from out the nook,
Whose gloom the snow-birds drive away,
You pour out in the fullness of your glory,
And in thy depths reflect the splendor of the day.

Little stream, thou dost pour thy magic
And thy ripples full of song and merriment
Into the stream that makes our fields enchanted
And hallows all the groves we love the best.

Through the maze of whited branches
Memory doth paint her precious scenes
Of the loves that were as steadfast
As you clump of evergreens.

No path can be more glorious
Than those oft-trod paths which glide by thee
Amid the sunshine and the shadow of thy banks,
In sweetest joy and liberty.

If e'er in life, gloom, sorrows and sad cares
Shall burden all our hopes and joys---
We'll long to spend again one idle hour by thee
And list unto the rippling of thy waves.

When our fondest dreams of youth are then completed,---
When the glorious hopes of manhood are fulfilled,
May we truly know that the path which led to victory
Leads back unto thy portals, whence we came.

The Lure of The Quittapahilla

The gurgling waters just below the mill,
Where wavelets play at leap-frog 'neath the hill,
Laugh and grow calm between each velvet bank
When they have ceased from every sprightly prank.
And there beneath the shade of many a tree
Whose branches play at hide and seek with me,
The waves lie still, and through their crystal face,
The lovers, two by two—the strength and grace—
Look in; and see reflected cloud and sky—
The Blue and White that may be by and by.

The lone philosopher walks there,
And plies his pencil o'er the yellow pad
Of penny paper like he used to use
To write his a b c when but a lad;
And as he speculates alone, forgot,
He finds a velvet hummock for a seat,
And lets the green leaves fan him overhead,
While lazy waves play soft about his feet.
Here homing children loiter one by one
From fields of dandelion where they have been,
To catch the breath of that enchanting spot
That seems to hallow all its marsh and fen;
And long-nosed dogs sniff at the virile sod
To find a careless muskrat off his guard,
While birds pluck brisk at many a seeding pod,
That hangs on weeds that grow upon the sward.

And when the west is soft with fading gold,
And shadows dare at sunset to be bold,
It may be that a modest form goes forth
With stealthy tread (but knowing well the worth
Of that fleet hour, is unabashed and bold)
To keep his tryst with One who is of old,
Who walks along those banks by night and day
To hear the insect vespers and to watch the children play.

Year in, year out, the Quittie muses on,
And every magic ripple plays a while and then is gone,
And roving children ramble there as when the stream was young,
And still each youthful poet has its praises on his tongue.
Still lovers, two by two, tread softly where the beetles play,
And hear the birds a-wooing in the old familiar way,
And still a tryst unbroken is upon those Quittie banks;
The trees in reverence raise their arms in everlasting thanks
To the Gardener of the Quittie and the Painter of that scene,
Where the rocks are vari-colored and the moss and grass are green,
And the sky and clouds are ever changing shades of Blue and White,
Just to keep the tender memories of our L. V. school days bright.

CARL W. HISER.

The College Student and Current Problems.

In the early days of the Washington conference the students and members of the faculty of Lebanon Valley College voted with unanimity to endorse the plan of Secretary Hughes for the limitation of armaments. This was quite creditable for the public sentiment of the world will be molded largely in the future by the men and women who are now in the colleges. Furthermore no formal regulations to prevent war can avail without a powerful popular sentiment for peace. The only real hope for world peace lies in the development of a social consciousness that hates war and a will to end war. The moral leadership to develop this sentiment rests largely with the college.

Our ability to think internationally received great impetus more than twenty years ago, when John R. Mott visited colleges and universities in the leading nations of the world and organized the World's Student Federation. One result of this movement has been a large influx of Chinese and Japanese students to American Institutions of higher learning. The educated men of these countries have thereby been taught to think in terms broader than their own Oriental point of view and higher than those of their native religious beliefs.

But the tendency to think internationally brings with it a serious danger. The social consciousness can be central on only one thing at a time and there is serious danger that in giving our attention to the problems of mutual interest to all nations we shall lose sight of local problems. It is the pride of New England that she brought Democracy into flower in the town meeting. It has been said that self-government like charity, should begin at home, and while we are engaged in the praiseworthy attempts to assist in the solution of the larger problems, we must not forget that the best service that most of us will ever render will find expression not in an attempt to assist in the formulation of rules for the government of the world, but in conscientious devotion to our home, our church and our local school system.

Prof. H. H. SHENK.

The President's Message

Lebanon Valley College stands for the symmetrical development of the entire being—body, heart and mind. To neglect any of these means an unsymmetrical development and therefore a failure to be and to do one's best. Lebanon Valley recognizes the special opportunities offered to students and holds them to greater responsibilities.

Education is power. Education is stored up energy. This power and energy can be released at the will of the possessor. It can be a positive and constructive force or it can be a negative and destructive one.

The college student at work or at play must learn to control himself that he may be equipped to bear the responsibility of leadership among his fellows in the Church and the state. He should know himself. He should know men. He should know and possess manly principles. He should know God. Then if he is true to himself and to all others he becomes an interpreter for the masses and the paths of inquirers lead to his gate.

This is the aim of the college and the hope of every student.

Senior Class History

Twelve hundred million men are spread
About this earth, and I and you
Wonder, when you and I are dead,
What will those luckless millions do?
—Kipling.

IN THE fall of the year, nineteen hundred and eighteen, a year made momentous in the world's history, there came to the halls of Lebanon Valley College, a class eager and ready to prepare themselves for life and its tasks. The very fact that the warring nations had just declared world-wide peace, made us all the more determined to make our college career count for something in the new age of reconstruction and new ideals.

During our first year, the presence of the S. A. T. C. in our midst rather confused us, and almost an entire year had passed before we knew of whom our class was really composed. After this organization had disbanded however, we soon learned to know each other and to work with the proper class spirit. We chose as our motto "En Avant" and strove to live up to it to the best of our ability throughout our four years of college life.

In our Inter-class struggles we suffered defeats, as well as enjoyed victories, which we are proud to say that, as a class we have never had any cause to be ashamed of any of our enterprises. We would not boast of our prowess, for we are ordinary human beings, striving to uphold the honor of our class and our Alma Mater.

What we have been here and what we have done here is better judged by our fellow students and teachers. The impressions we make which are written upon the minds and hearts of our fellow-men are always those which count for most in life. Whether or not our brief sojourn at Lebanon Valley was worth while, we leave to our associates to judge; for I fear our judgment would be prejudiced.

It is with extreme regret that we think of leaving our dear college and our friends remaining there. We do not know what the future holds for us. Time only, will reveal that. Emerson in his poem entitled "Days" tells us:

Daughters of Time, the hypocrite Days,
Muffled and dumb like barefoot dervishes,
And marching in an endless file,
Bring diadems and fagots in their hands,
Bread, kingdoms, stars, and sky that holds them all.

These lines are a promise which hold a warning for each member of the class of 1922. May we choose rightly when opportunity presents itself, and through the long years of life which are still before us, may we uphold our old college motto—"En Avant."

Junior Class History

E, the Class of 1923 have breathed the college atmosphere of our dear old Lebanon Valley for three years and our devotion has increased with each happy year which was intermingled with work and play. Now it is with pleasant memories that we look back upon "our past" and record the history of the class whose memory shall never grow dim. We have tried not to live for ourselves only, but we have toiled for the honor of the school as well. Using our motto, "Leaders not Followers," as a guide we have striven to fill our place.

When we think of our Freshman year pleasant times and glorious memories loom up before us. The large number of our class was an inspiration not only to each Freshman lad and lassie but also to the Faculty and student body in general. So that with quantity, quality and spirit we were soon able to overcome our greenness.

The second year of our life at Lebanon Valley was crowned with laurels. Smaller in number, we displayed even greater spirit. We enjoyed not only victories but we experienced defeats. Altho at times we played the losing game, hope and ambition made us work harder and more eagerly to reach the goal and attain future success. With steadfastness and perseverance we rid ourselves of the so-called Sophomore characteristics.

We realized in our Junior year that "the smallest are oft the greatest," so we struggled on to do honor to our Alma Mater with a small group of earnest classmates. We entered heartily into every phase of college life. Brimming over with enthusiasm and with our motto to shield and direct the way, we sent leaders into religious work, literary societies and athletic activities.

So we have made great efforts to make ourselves worthy of our college. We have taken active interest in everything that was of benefit and glory to Lebanon Valley. If we have failed in some things, may our toil not have been in vain. May 1923 be an example for her successors to follow.

May they profit by our mistakes and may our successful achievements be an inspiration to them.

RALPH E. BOYER

York, Pa.

Classical

Philokosmian

“Boyer”—Ever responsive to the persistent call of duty; ever precisely and enthusiastically concentrated upon his efforts; ever thoughtful, honest and earnest in his actions; intensely serious yet withal witty and jovial, he moves among us, a man worthy of the admiration of all.

The Class of 1923 is pleased to have him as one of her members, for oft in times of greatest difficulty he has solved their problems. Ralph has already become a very successful minister and speaker and we are pleased to note his past achievements but we feel sure that Time awaits impatiently to honor him far more for sincere efforts placed on worthy causes.

Honest toil must some day receive:—
Recognition and an ample recompense.
Strive on and realize your dream.

Honors:—

College: Glee Club (1, 2); Secretary (2); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (2); Ministerium (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (3).

Class: Football (2); Tug of War (1, 2); Business Manager of the Annual (3).

Society: Chaplain (1, 2); Anniversary Play (1); Anniversary Chorus (1, 2); Editor (2, 3); Corresponding Secretary (2).

Extra: Supply Pastor Baltimore Fifth Church; Pastor Carlisle Circuit.

ESTHER S. BRUNNER

New Bloomfield, Pa.

Modern Language

Clonian

Esther is our big sister. She comes to us from New Bloomfield where the foundation of her education was laid in the little red schoolhouse near her home. Later she attended New Bloomfield High School from which she was graduated with honors. Her sunny disposition and cheerful spirit will drive the "Blues" to the wall at a moment's notice. She has become famous among the North Hall girls as a proctor. She has proven to the girls that her demands command obedience. We can always depend on her when we want to have a good time, for she is a good sport and is ready to do her share. As a member of the Student Volunteer Band she has not decided whether she will go to Africa as a teacher, nurse, doctor or the help-meet of an evangelist.

Beyond the darkest cloud there lies,
A ray of light both bright and clear
That smiles and ehides each fear.

Honors:

College: Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3), Delegate to Eagles Mere (1), Cabinet (2, 3); U. F. R. (2), Secretary (3); Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3), Secretary (2); Mathematical Round Table (1, 2, 3), Secretary (3); Dramatic Society (2, 3), Secretary (3).

Class: Vice-President (3); College Department Editor of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Janitor (1, 2); Chaplain (2).

FRANCES DURBIN

Ramey, Pa.

Modern Language

Delphian

"Frances" really has been acquainted with Lebanon Valley longer than we have been for she is an ex-member of the class of 1919 and we might not be able to give her full justice in this little write-up. Owing to the scarcity of teachers during the war period, "Frances" did her duty by teaching young ideas how to shoot. In the fall of 1921, she returned and joined the ranks of '23. "Frances" has had a large and varied experience and is an authority on all subjects. We certainly appreciate having so good a student, so good a classmate and such a jolly good lady to enter with us in all which we must meet. After graduation "Frances" expects to go to Italy, her ancestral home, to learn the Italian language and literature and then returning with a Ph. D., she will teach in one of the larger Universities.

Most folks have enough troubles of their own,
So bear to them a cheerful smile, (as you have done),
And help them to forget the past.
That both may realize a better future.

Honors:

Class: Ex-member of the Class of 1919,
1915-17. Member of the Class of 1923 (3).
Society: Clintonian (1, 2); Delphian (3).

PAUL S. ENSMINGER

Palmyra, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

“Ensy” entered our class as a Junior having “prepped” at Penn State. It was a matter of days, not months, for him to make his acquaintance. King of the day-student’s room and all others who would follow him, he is always in the bunch and ready to do his duty to any of them. He is a student of honor and excels in Physics. He possesses a kind, open heart and is ever prepared to aid those in need. We know little of his social affairs, but we understand that he is perfectly “at home” in Lebanon. “Shorty,” as he is often called, spends most of his spare time wrestling or on the dance floor. However, he always knows when to work and when to play and this accounts for his success. We feel that the future will find him at the head of a large manufacturing establishment, possessing considerable wealth and being very charitable to all.

When e'er we're blue, there's nothing half so grand,
As a good friend's voice, which truly
says,
May I kindly lend a hand.

Honors:—

Class: Member of the Class of 1923. (3).
Society: Member (3).

EARLE E. FAKE

Reading, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

"Fake" is not what the name might suggest. He is a man of manly characteristics, a student of worthy note, a sincere friend to all his friends and an admirer of truth and justice. He constantly weighs each act with careful forethought. Although he is often misunderstood he means well and attempts to do well. But after all he is kind hearted, jovial and true. "Fake" is '23's leading chemist and is an assistant in that branch of study. The past has given him splendid praise, the present honors him, but '23 awaits the day when accomplishment shall crown him with true success.

"To believe your own thought, to believe that what is true for you in your own private heart is true for all men—that is genius."

Honors:—

College: Reserve Football (1); Reserve Baseball (1, 2); Scientific Society (2); Assistant Baseball Manager (3); Asst. Business Manager of the Crucible (3); Secretary of the Athletic Council (3); Men's Senate (3); Star Course Committee (3); Assistant in Chemistry (3).

Class: Tug of War (2); Football (1, 2); Baseball (1, 2); Volleyball, Capt. (3); Associate Editor of the Annual (3); Society: Vice-President (3).

GUY D. FAUST

Collingdale, Pa.

Historical-Political

Philokosmian

Whom have we here? Mr. Faust, the gentleman who hails from Darby. He is more commonly known to us as "Nig," "Guy" or "Faust," but the fact remains that he is one of our best humorists. Small, witty and jovial, yet high in ideals and purposes. "Nig" is our honor student, only the Professors don't realize that fact. (Dr. McClean was the only one who really appreciated his ability.) You ask what course "Nig" is taking? Ask him. However, he is treating it quite justly. "Nig" has not been without honors at L. V. C. for he is now assuming the duties of our football squad and also cheerleader. The Class of '23 also owes him their gratitude for services rendered in their behalf in football, basketball and baseball. Laying all jesting aside, the Class of '23 wishes you, Dr. Faust, the best that life can give.

Of all the months I like the best, May,
Of all the things I'll ever do, I may?
Of all things, first or last—"Mae."

Honors:—

College: Cheer Leader (1); Trainer (2);
Second assistant Football Manager (2);
First assistant Football Manager (3); X.
O. S. O. T. Club (2, 3); Y. M. C. A. (1, 2, 3).

Class: Tug of War (1); Football (1, 2);
Basketball (1, 2, 3); Baseball (1, 2); Cast:
"Maggie Pepper" (3); Basketball Captain
(3).

Society: Janitor (1, 2).

CALVIN F. FENCIL

Annville, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

"Calvin" joined our ranks in our Sophomore year and certainly has been a great aid to us. His loyalty to his class, his society and his school has no limit. It is extended to the Nth degree. He is 1923's all-round man and when in need of a student, a musician, an athlete, an artist, an electrician, etc., Calvin is the man for whom we seek. Aside from his many college activities "Calvin" finds time to devote to the better interests of his fellow citizens. He is very active in Church and Civic affairs and he can well be assured of being the "First Mayor of Annville." When in need of sympathy from his many tasks he journeys to Lebanon or Baltimore, where duties cease to molest his efforts.

Many duties divide and diminish the ability of man.

But here is one, who in his greatness,
Does all his many duties well.

Honors:—

College: Glee Club (3); Assistant in Chemistry (3); Assistant Manager of Minor Sports (3).

Class: Baseball (2); Volleyball (3); Cartoonist of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Janitor (2); Corresponding Secretary (3); Recording Secretary (3).

DOROTHY H. FENCIL

Annville, Pa.

Historical-Political

Delphian

Queen of hearts and beauty—the class of 1923 salutes you, Oh fairest maiden! Unswerving in her purpose to do the best she can and to reach the goal of her ambitions, Dorothy is ever zealous for '23. Proud we are to have as one of us so unselfish and willing a daughter. As an example of all that '23 tries to be, she is ever with us, no matter how difficult the work at hand may be. From Basketball to scholastic attainments Dorothy is marked as a leader. In the world of life she has L. V. C. at her feet and many handsome braves, from journalists to athletes, have endeavored to win her for their own. But when her knight comes riding, we know that he will be worthy—for it is written in the stars that she will be happy.

Along the dull, drear path of study—
A queenly grace, a lovely face, a cheerful countenance,
Can only urge us on to our duty.

Honors:—

College: Varsity Basketball (1); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Society (3).

Class: Basketball (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (1); Secretary (3); Cartoonist of the Annual (3); Executive Committee (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Clionian (1, 2); Delphian (3); Treasurer (3).

MARTHA GINGRICH

Palmyra, Pa.

Historical-Political

Delphian

What a virtuous maiden is before us now—one of Palmyra's best. A kindly word for everyone and a smile as she passes by, is Martha's gift to '23. Ready to do things at a moment's notice, be it for society, class or college, Martha is at the helm. An excellent scholar she is, excelling in every phase of her scholastic work. The Delphian Society counts her as one of their strongest members, and old Clio is honored to give up such a one as this to carry on its noble traditions. Perseverance is one of her outstanding characteristics and "If at first all is not well, try again" seems to be her motto.

That which the future may possess for us
Cannot be bounded. Yet nothing can be obtained,
Unless we Try and Try again.

Honors:—

College: Varsity Basketball (1); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3).

Class: Basketball (1, 2, 3); Secretary (3).
Society: Chionian (1, 2); Delphian (3).

DELLA M. HERR

Amville, Pa.

Historical-Political

Clonian

Della was born in Amville and has lived there ever since. She graduated from Amville High in the year 1919 and entered L. V. in the fall of that same year. She has always been a devoted member of the class of 1923. "Della" says she expects to be a missionary, we hope that she may reach her goal and we wish her well in her work. She now has one extremely important advantage in being a day student and yet in being in direct touch with the school. The girls of North Hall have many times enjoyed a splendid time in Della's kitchen, making candy, etc., and we must give "Della" deserving praise for being so very kind and liberal to all whom she may meet. "Della" is not as prompt as some folks at times, but this is due to the fact that she has other duties than those of the average student, and then she is always there when she does arrive.

To those who are sincere and true

The best reward returns—

Thus may kind fate be good to you.

And fill your deepest yearns.

Honors:—

College: Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Cabinet (3); Delegate to Eagles Mere (2); Eurydice Club (1, 2, 3); College Choir (2, 3); Reserve Basketball (1); Dramatic Society (3).

Class: Vice-President (2); Tennis (1); Basketball (2, 3).

Society: Corresponding Secretary (3); Anniversary Program (3); Glio Chorus (1, 3).

MARY F. HIESTER

Anville, Pa.

Modern Language

Clonian

Another daughter of old Anville is here to greet you. While '23 was in her youth little was known of this maiden and she was often spoken of as "that little Hiester girl." But although still the baby of the class Mary has grown up considerably. She was unusually studious and is studious now, but other things have entered into her life. She is a strong member of Clion and has served in many capacities in the work of '23. She deserves special credit for substituting, at a very late date, the part played by Miss Reeves, who had the extreme misfortune of being seriously ill at this specific time. Music is Mary's affinity at the present time, but she,— Mary is going to teach after she finishes Lebanon Valley and then who knows, she may even take her sister's name and live in Berks County.

In youth, the dreams are ever bright,
All hopes from care are free,
And thus we wish to you great joy,
Oh youth of '23!

Honors:—

College: Eurydice Club (2, 3), Treasurer (3); Dramatic Society (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. (3).

Class: Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3); Associate Editor of the Annual (3).

Society: Corresponding Secretary (2); Recording Secretary (3); Anniversary Chorus (3).

GEORGE O. HOHL

Pitman, Pa.

Scientific Philokosmian

A man with untold possibilities and ability for great achievement—with excellent determination and perseverance when he wills to do a thing. He is a speaker, a writer, a singer, a student and a business man. Although he is a Science student he is not limited to that field alone but science is his present choice. We well remember the many nights when we were blue, that "George" and "Skyrocket Shader" and the others of our jolly Freshman group would lull away those cares with merry songs—and those days shall not soon be forgotten. Although the past and present are a proof of his ability, we hope that the future may possess for him, un-dreamed joy, success and happiness.

I love music, indeed I do,
But of all the soothing melodies,
I love the song,
That bears a note of Love.

Honors:—

College: Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Science Club (2, 3); Crucible Staff (1, 2).
Class: President (1); Tug of War (1); Football (1, 2); Basketball (1).
Society: Anniversary Chorus (1, 2, 3).

KATHRYN HOPPLE

Lebanon, Pa.

Public School Music

"Kit" is a new addition to our class, having joined our ranks this year. Due to the fact that "Kit" is a music student we are not generally acquainted with her. However, we do know that whenever she is asked to do any certain thing, although she has no particular interest in it, she is willing and eager to do it. Her greatest joy is found in kidding others. Her one great characteristic is her splendid unselfish spirit, which we highly admire. We also admire her ability as a vocalist and some day we expect to hear of her in the higher circles of music. We wish her well and requests her to carry her spirit through all of life. We are confident that the man who wants a housewife of unusual talents and capabilities had better get his application in early, for such as she is always in demand.

With laughter and with song
Our days are not so long,
So smile, and keep on singing,
Thus, e'er to us, abundant gladness bringing.

Honors:—

College: Enrydice Club (1); Y. W. C. A. (1).

Class: Member (3).

HELEN M. HUGHES

York, Pa.

Modern Language

Delphian

"Tiny" or "Tina" as she is usually called is just what her name suggests. Owing to the fact that her father is a minister, she got her education on the installment plan. Being raised in this particular environment accounts for her extremely religious turn of mind (?). After her graduation from the York High School, assuring herself that she needed more knowledge, she entered Lebanon Valley in the fall of '19. She is the daughter of the famous Jones family and is seldom seen without "Ma" and "Pa." Gettysburg holds some peculiar attraction for her other than Kathryn Hummelbaugh, for after one of her week end visits we hear the name of "Harvey." But whether poet or football star we cannot tell.

Oh little one with eyes that gleam,
Pure faith and friendship in a stream
Of sweet sincerity—your smile
Has made our young hearts glad the while.

Honors:—

College: W. S. G. A. (2); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Society (2, 3).

Class: Secretary (1); Executive Committee (1, 2, 3). Society Editor of the Annual (3).

Society: Chionian (1, 2); Editor (1); Delphian (3); Board of Trustees (3).

J. RAYMOND HUTCHINSON

Paradise, Pa.

Classical

Philokosmian

From Paradise? This startling question received the unusual assent, when in the early days of '23's existence it was put to this valiant son. As President of the class and Editor of the Quittapahilla, Hutchinson has always done his duty and done it well. Always ready to do that which is asked of him has won him a coveted place among us. He is a good student and is always interested in all phases of the inter-class and inter-collegiate contests. As a Freshman we saw little of him but in the Sophomore year he came before us as our class Treasurer and fulfilled the duties of that office in splendid manner. Ready for the best that life has to offer him and worthy of whatever good may come his way, we send him on his way with our best wishes—as our Editor.

A cool breeze upon a summer's day,
Is like unto a man of depth and vision true;

May calm sincerity ever mark the way
you tread.

While breathing out the breath of love and friendship, too.

KATHRYN E. KRATZERT

Littlestown, Pa.

Modern Language

Delphian

Many, many times while still a freshman "Kathryn" answered the call of the "Waltz" to Gettysburg. But now since she has attained the position of an upper classman, she has become more studious. Bird study, particularly the study of Wrens (Remn), for some reason or other has become a specialty to her and we understand that she has made excellent grades in this study. But "Kat" has high ideals and is considered by all of her professors as an excellent student. She is numbered among those Clonians who left the precepts of Clío to begin the work of organizing the new society which has and will do so much for L. V. C. Kathryn is the strong member of the Jones Family and is more commonly known as "Pa." We have often felt her influence in many things which '23 has striven to uphold and we sincerely wish her luck in life.

A happy disposition is a boon to life and work.

And thou, oh damsel, claimeth well
this honored fame;

Go on thy way, spread joy and mirth,
wherever shadows lurk,

And make our world a better place, in which to live,

Than when you came.

Honors:—

Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Star Course Committee (2); Dramatic Society (2, 3); Reserve Basketball (1).

Class: Athletic Editor of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3); Basketball (1, 2, 3).

Society: Clío (1, 2); Delphian (3); Corresponding Secretary (3); Public Program Orator (3).

WARREN B. KREIDER

Lebanon, Pa.

Scientific

Kalozetan

"Congressman," a genuine specimen of a Pennsylvania Dutchman hails from the illustrious city of Bunker Hill, of which he is Mayor. He is '23's farmer and Lebanon Valley's greatest mathematician. He is an orator of no mean ability. Webster's Bunker Hill Address is nothing to be compared with those of this gallant youth. He apparently finds no time to socialize at L. V., but is known to be a social demon in his own metropolis. Selfishness finds no place in his kind heart and he is ever ready to aid others. He has proven himself to be a true friend and an honorable classmate. We predict a great future for him as a teacher in his chosen profession. We admire him for his perseverance and determination, with which he meets all occasions equally.

In toil and concentration, youth thou dost excel,
 Each task you meet, you do and finish well.
 A rich reward awaits you yonder—
 stick to the road
 That leads to true Success, the house of your abode.

Honors:—

College: Mathematical Round Table (3);
 Instructor in the Academy (3).
 Class: Baseball (2); Volleyball (3).
 Society: Member (3).

MARIAN E. LIGHT

Lebanon, Pa.

Public School Music

"Marian" is one of our Lebanon girls, though she originally hails from Jonestown, where she received her first musical training. She loves to sing, and she sings well, as she does everything she undertakes. During her first year at L. V. she did not join any class, but having looked 'em all over she decided that '23 was the class for her. It is a great pleasure to classify "Marian" as one of our co-eds, but due to the fact that she is a music student, we are not permitted to have her with us all the time. Whenever "Marian" may go we are sure that her sweet smile will light the way for others. After all, this is one of the great features of true success, that one is able to be happy and in doing so cause others to be more truly contented.

True virtue, lies in retaining within your individual self
All despair,
And in giving to the world a song,
which will ever bear
A note of peace and happiness.

Honors:—

College: Eurydice Club (1, 2).
Class: Member (3).

ANNA E. LONG

Modern Language

Delphian

Another of our day students is brought to our notice in this little light haired girl. As witty as the wittiest, Anna makes the day-students' room virtually peal with laughter by her funny jokes and her never-failing wit. She is a Modern Language student and we mean to emphasize the word student in particular. You would not believe it to look at her, but nevertheless she is very fond of the masculine type, particularly the Wolfish tribe. To Anna life is just one big round of fun. She has the coveted ability to say things which are really funny, without laughing at them herself. This fair daughter of '23 we send on her way with the best we have, our good wishes.

'Twas one who said still waters flow-
eth deep,
And well the words fit thee!
Thy sure insight and thy silent mus-
ing sweep
The dust of life into the sea.

Honors:—

College: Y. W. C. A. (1).
Class: Joke Editor of the Annual (3).

"Kate" was born in the vicinity of the Hill Church where she has lived ever since. She is one of our athletic girls, of whom we are highly proud. "Kate" has had plenty of training along athletic lines, for in all kinds of weather she has pursued the road to knowledge by means of a daily country walk and often "got there" before many of the rest of us. She has always been a staunch supporter of '23, and of all the brilliant affairs which the class has ever held, her royal entertainment after our victory over the Freshman girls in the inter-class game will always be remembered as being one of the most enjoyable. We have also had many pleasant hikes in the direction of her home. We do not know what she expects to do after graduation, but we know that she will be successful in whatever she undertakes to do.

One may forget a thousand things of college life,

But in the struggle and the strife of
our after years,

We shall ne'er forget the courtesy
and the kindness,

Which you have shown unto us all.

JOSEPH R. MACDONALD

Swatara Station, Pa.

Classical

Philokosmian

"Mae" hails from the renowned city of Swatara Station, which boasts of a total population of 200, while the train is passing through. "Mae" thoroughly believes that "two heads are better than one" and indeed we must credit him with being able to do more in a short period of time than the average student. It is indeed seldom that any organization is privileged with having so extraordinary a type of man as one of its members, and we appreciated him for being one of our members. Not only has he already attained great success in his specific line of work (the ministry) but more than that at an age when most men lose their dreams of youth and think them already completed, this one strives on and realizes that there are ever new conditions, which must be met and that there is no accomplishment until the end shall crown one with true success.

True success is not for a moment only.
Each victory gained must lead on to another greater—

Or all is valid and of little worth.
True success lies in continued greatness.

Honors:—

College: Ministerium (1, 2, 3).

Society: Member (2, 3).

AGNES MERCHITIS

Minersville, Pa.

Historical-Political

Clonian

This petite bonnie lassie came to L. V. from Minersville and soon captivated all the class of '23 by her winning ways and charming manner. She is always busy, either on her lessons, or an attack of the "blues" caused, she says, by her love affairs, for invariably she is either cross at him or they have just made up. During these attacks she is frequently seen gazing from her east window. "Agnes" is a very good student in many respects and after graduation, she says, she is going to take her Ph. D. and teach at Columbia University. We trust that shall mean success to her, but even though—

In English, she is quite a star,
And in French she is a wonder,
Yet, we're much afraid she'll marry
"Fat"

And let teaching go to thunder.

Honors:—

College: Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Eurydice Club (2, 3); Dramatic Society (2, 3); Star Course Committee (3).

Class: Vice President (2); Society Editor of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper."

Society: Janitor (1); Anniversary Chorus (3); Anniversary Program (3).

H. LLOYD MILLER

Tunkhannock, Pa.

Scientific

Kalozetean

"Miller" spent his early college career at Dickinson College but came to Lebanon Valley last fall to complete his course here. We are indeed pleased to have him with us as one of our group especially so for his enthusiastic manner in which he meets all things. It is through his activity and enthusiasm that he is making a name for himself which we will not soon forget. He is ever busy with his studies and other college duties and then he does each well. We do not know his aims for the future but with the knowledge of his present earnest zeal and sincere efforts which he places in all his work, we need not fear the outcome of his combat with Time.

If there is one great thing in life,
That has a tinge of beauty,
Truly we would answer you—It is
An honest sense of duty.

Honors:—

College: Ex-member of the class of 1922 of Dickinson College; Member of the Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity; Y. M. C. A. (3).

Class: Inter-class basketball (3); Assistant Business Manager of the Annual (3); Business manager of the Junior Play (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper."

II. MAE MORROW

Duncannon, Pa.

Historical-Political Oratory Clionian

In every inter-class contest between the girls, in which '23 figured could be seen this black-haired, black-eyed daughter of Duncannon. Many a Freshman or Sophomore as the case might be, suffered at the hands of this valiant maiden. This alone has not distinguished "Mae," for scholastically she ranks high. Among her well prepared is the course in campusology, in which she never takes any cuts. Many times while going through the halls, one can hear a rumbling almost like thundering. But do not worry, its only "Mae" repeating oratory. "Mae" is planning to pursue a course of study at Emerson after graduating from Lebanon Valley. But we are not sure of this because the whole (Hohl) of her life is not fulfilled. In whatever manner she meets life, '23 wishes her luck and joy.

"Every lassie has her laddie,"
Happy is the heart that breathes
So confident a breath.

Honors:—

College: Mathematical Round Table (1, 2); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Society (2, 3).

Class: Basketball (1, 2); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Janitor (1); Recording Secretary (3); Anniversary Chorus (3); Anniversary Program (3).

HEBER R. MUTCH

Reading, Pa.

Classical

Kalozetean

A student good and strong in every line which he may choose. And really more than that he is a scholar and a genius. Mutch always makes an "A" look sick whenever he wishes. "Mutch" does not participate in books alone but has several diverging occupations. His one favorite occupation from books is that of playing chess. He has easily captured the medal for the championship in that branch here at Lebanon Valley. He is also a philosopher, but beside all this he is a jolly good fellow and friend. The class of '23 wishes him well in any further studies he may pursue and we expect many great things from him in later life. He has one little fault???

A sigh, a kiss, a fond farewell,
 And she is gone;
 A glance, a curl, another girl—
 And life goes on.

Honors:—

College: Mathematical Round Table (1, 2, 3); Vice President (3); Crucible Staff (2); Star Course Committee (2); Ministerium (1, 2, 3); Men's Senate (2, 3); Vice-President Y. M. C. A. (3); Instructor in the Academy (3); Glee Club (3).

Society: Secretary (2); Chaplain (2); Vice-President (3); Treasurer (3).

VERNA P. PELL

Lykens, Pa.

Music

Chionian

This strong girl comes to us as a music student from Lykens. She has been a part of '23 ever since our organization way back in the fall of '19. Her willingness to do anything and everything to strengthen and carry on the spirit of '23 is her strongest virtue. Everyone likes her but not a few are afraid of that strong right arm, which is put into use whenever anyone speaks even jestingly of '23. Our strong defender and a guarantee of all that '23 strives to uphold is "Verna." Mirth and gaiety reign supreme whenever "Verna" is present and she is well known as a member of the trio which keeps North Hall well supplied with music. We know little of her aspirations but we are sure that in whatever capacity she finds her life work she will do it well and be of credit to her Alma Mater.

Within the throng, there is a girl,
Both good and strong, called
"Verna,"

Who ever bears a smile and song
To all whom she may meet.

Honors:—

College: Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3), Eurydice Club (1, 2, 3), Vice-President (3).

Class: Music Editor of the Annual (3).

Society: Pianist (1); Janitor (1); Chio Chorus (1).

C.E.P.

C. MAE REEVES

Highspire, Pa.

Historical-Political-Oratorical Delphian

Our "Mae" comes from Highspire, where she graduated as honor student. It is not hard to guess that she is partially individualistic, or as some of us are wont to say, different. She admires literature and has developed greatly along the literary line of work. However, she is interested in things other than literature only. While we were underclassmen and our inter-class games were vital features of college life, Mae could be seen watching with anxious eye the form of a certain curly-headed youth of '23. Indeed she even demanded the German "Faustrecht" at the basketball games and this is proof enough of her ardent support of '23. We admire her for her willingness to help in whatever she is able and we feel that in life, whatever her duties may be, she will ever serve and serve well her fellow men.

Gay, carefree and ever kind,
 Happy and courteous;
 One cannot always find,
 A being so beautiful.

Honors:—

College: Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Society (2, 3); Crucible Staff (1, 2, 3).

Class: Executive Committee (3); Vice-President (3); Literary Editor of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Chionian (1, 2); Editor (2); Anniversary Chorus (1), Delphian (3); Secretary (3); Public Program Orator (3).

IRA M. RUTH

Sinking Springs, Pa.

Historical-Political-Music Kalozetean

"Babe" is not so called because he is a home-run hitter, but he can strike the sweetest chords of music that any piano or organ is able to produce. He is the Musician of '23 and his excellent music delights all who hear it. Often have we enjoyed his concerts, both private and public, but most of all those rendered when we were blue and did not know what to do. "Babe" is not only a music student but is also taking a complete college course and therefore is kept very busy. However, he is not too busy to be kind, courteous, honest and a good, true gentleman. "Babe"—

May many men be awakened,
To greater chords of duty,
Through the beauty of your melodies.

Honors:—

College: Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3).

Class: Tug of War (1); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

Society: Pianist (1, 2, 3); Treasurer (1);
Anniversary Program (1, 2).

ELEANOR F. SHEAFFER

Steelton, Pa.

Modern Language

Clonian

Eleanor comes to us from Steelton, where under the shadow of the great steel plant, she laid the foundation of her education. Diligence has always been the dominant feature of her school life. She has determination and perseverance and will succeed in whatever she undertakes. She is a Junior representative on the W. S. G. A. and a member of the Volunteer Band. She has never been known to refuse to do a favor for anyone and aims to be a "jolly good fellow." At any rate she is a good sort of girl in every respect. She is destined to turn some bachelor's hall into a palace of love, but who this will be we would not be presumptuous to even make a guess.

The future holds for us,
 We know not what,
 But we can grasp
 Whate'er we most desire.

Honors:—

College: W. S. G. A. (3); Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3), Vice President (3); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3), Corresponding Secretary (2); Delegate to Eagles Mere (1).

Society: Corresponding Secretary (2); Janitor (1, 2).

S. LUCILE SHENK

Annville, Pa.

Historical-Political-Oratory      Clionian

"Lucile" joined the class of '23 in our Freshman year and has been a devoted member of that organization ever since. She is a good, well-rounded student, English and Oratory being her specialties. Of course we must not forget History in which she is a star. We realize her present ability and possibilities, but we are in doubt as to what she will do in the future. She quite frequently exercises a woman's privilege of changing her mind occasionally. We believe that her future course will be Journalistic work and perchance she may begin on the Annville Journal. Extensive work on Journalism would involve University training, Wisconsin University we would presume. However, Y. W. C. A. work may call her to California, but this we know, that where'er she may go, she will be a noble, earnest supporter of some very worthy cause.

The great thing in this world is,
Not to know where you stand,
But to realize fully
In which direction you are moving.

Honors:—

College: Crucible Staff (1, 2, 3), Alumni Editor (1, 2), Literary Editor (3); Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3), Delegate to Juniata (1), Delegate to Eagles Mere (2), Cabinet (3), Star Course Committee (2); Dramatic Society (2, 3), Secretary (3).

Class: Vice-President (1); Secretary (2); Treasurer (3); Associate Editor of the Annual (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3).

DOROTHY SHOLLEY

Annville, Pa.

Music

Clonian

Dorothy is one of our Annville girls, having lived in the town since she was quite a little girl. She has not always been a class-sister, having joined our class last year when she decided to specialize in music. We may say that it really is a specialty for both in Piano and Voice, "Dorothy" is quite accomplished. We do not know much about her aspirations as she is not inclined to talking, however even for this reason we would predict a very brilliant future for her. It has been rumored that after graduation "Dot" expects to take up a domestic science course in her own kitchen, but for this we cannot fully vouch. Where'er you may be, we know that you will bear with you a song of cheer, and a note of happiness.

Although mostly quiet and silent,
Yet in the deep outbursts of music
You speak and bear a message
Which words alone cannot convey.

Honors:—

College: Eurydice Club (2, 3).

ELIZABETH M. SMITH

Robesonia, Pa.

Modern Language

Delphian

"Betty," our beloved basketball player, came to us from Robesonia High. Her well known personage can be seen every day late in the afternoon hurrying to take the train—she belongs, you see, to our well-known day-student group. A kindly word for all and a most winning smile characterize "Betty." If anyone hears a cheery laugh in the region of the day-student's room, they might know that "Betty" is there and sharing in the mirth. As a student she can claim her share of praise, for in the Modern Language course she makes her marks. Indeed many a valiant son of Lebanon Valley has tried to win her, but alas, she is for none of these. 1923 sends her on her way with its best wishes for a content and happy life.

For a personality that charms
Each one who looks thereon,
For thy kindness and thy grace, and more than these,
For thy simple honesty, we truly admire thee.

Honors:—

College: Varsity Basketball (1); Y. W.
C. A. (3).

Class: Secretary (2); Basketball (1, 2, 3).
Society: Delphian (3).

RICHARD H. SMITH

Tremont, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

A manly youth, a worthy scholar, and a noble athlete! We are indeed pleased to have him as one of our number. "Dick" has served his class in every inter-class event, save one or two, since we entered Lebanon Valley. We can be very grateful to him for worthy service in both athletics and all other class activities. "Dick" also deserves very great credit from his Alma Mater for services rendered in its behalf, for he has served her upon the football field, the basketball floor and upon the diamond. He has also participated in track. He deserves greatest praise in athletics for having been our Football Captain this past season. But not in athletics alone does he receive our respect, but for being a good, true gentleman and a sincere worker, never giving up until the task at hand is entirely completed.

Strive on until the course is done,
 Strive on until the race is won,
 And then, with a just reward, when all is thru,
 Success shall truly smile on you.

Honors:—

College: Reserve Football (1); Reserve Basketball (1, 3); Varsity football (2, 3), Captain (3); Varsity Baseball (2); Track (2); Scientific Club (2); Chess Club (2); Men's Senate (3); N. O. S. O. T. Club (2, 3), Vice President (3).

Class: Football (1, 2); Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain (1, 2); Baseball (1, 2); Tennis (1); President (3); Volleyball (3); Associate Editor of the Annual (3); Athletic Editor of the Annual (3).

Society: (2, 3); Executive Committee (3).

S. PAUL WEAVER

Cleona, Pa.

Classical

'Twas but recently that "Weaver" joined our ranks, having formerly gone to Otterbein College in Ohio. We do not know his past nor are we very well acquainted with him at present as he is a day-student. However to those of us who know him, we realize that he is a mighty good fellow and there is only one regret which we might have, namely that he is not able to be with us all the time. We realize however, that he has other duties aside from college duties and activities. We trust that his future may be more bright, more happy and more free through his touch with L.V.C.

The one way to be great in this dark world,
Is to be calm, modest and unassuming;
Falsehood and obscurity may seem to hide,
But in due time, Truth will dawn in all its splendor.

Honors:—

College: Ministerium (3).
Pastor of the Cleona Charge.

WILLIAM F. WENNER

Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Scientific

Kalozetean

Within this gallant youth there lies a splendid variety of ability and each talent could equally be developed into a specific science of worthy note. "Bill" has responded however to his childhood choice of Medical work and we do not doubt that he will be very successful in that line. "Bill" has always been kind to us when we've been blue, for his witty little jests oft have caused us to be happy when we were most despondent. Not only does "Will" have ability along many specific lines but he also possesses the power to carry through to the end, that which he may attempt. Throughout life "Bill" we wish you the steadfastness which you have often displayed to us in your undertakings. We wish you great achievement in your medical work.

Oh joyful youth! Thy mirth, thy cheer,

Is as a soothing balm to all our woes;
And thy constant, earnest endeavors
Lead us to try again, and win.

Honors:—

College: Scientific Club (2); Glee Club (3).

Class: Tug of War (1, 2); Executive Committee (3); Cast: "Maggie Pepper" (3); Artist for the Annual (3).

Society: Pianist (1, 2, 3); Corresponding Secretary (2, 3); Recording Secretary (3); Editor (2).

LESTER R. WILLIARD

Shamokin, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

"Williard" represents to us one who is a student, a socializer and withal is "Jess" a good sort of fellow. Two years ago we were accustomed to think of Jess and Slats but "Jess" is now our only representative from Shamokin and he is upholding their reputation splendidly. He is ever industrially engaged with some new idea and always attempts to do his best in all things. "Jess" claims that the age of Romance has not passed and also that it is not limited to any certain place or time but fully demonstrates that it can be conveyed to any place that this peculiar state of mind exists. Just one word more, "Jess" old boy, and then we're done—

The future lies before you, and there's a course,

Which you alone can run—Strive on until the end

Shall you with Success and may the deeds which you may do,

Bear your name on to ages yet unborn.

Honors:—

College: Reserve Football (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Mathematical Round Table (2, 3); Science Club (2); Board of Trade (2). Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3).

Class: President (1); Rug of War (2); Football (1, 2); Executive Committee (2); Treasurer (3); Basketball (3); Volleyball (3); Photographer of the Annual (3).

Society: Janitor (1); Anniversary Chorus (1, 2); Anniversary Play (2); Corresponding Secretary (3); Vice-President (3).

LEON R. WITMER

Lemoyne, Pa.

Scientific

Philokosmian

Many of us thought when "Witty" told us that he could pitch ball that he was only kidding, but time has proven that he is not only a good pitcher but also one of the heaviest hitters on our ball club. We can easily give him almost complete credit for not a few of our victories on the diamond. But with all to his credit he is not limited to this alone, for he is liked by all as being a good, kind-hearted fellow. He has the coveted power of remaining perfectly calm and undisturbed while being kidded and indeed he has this quality at all times. However, when "Witty" engages himself to do any certain thing he completes his task and does it well. With due recognition and respect for past services, '23 wishes him Success and Happiness.

Calm, unmolested, but sincere and true,

He e'er moves on and tries to do his best.

Strive on, the battle is not through,
After it's done, then rest.

Honors:—

College: Varsity Baseball (1, 2); N. O. S. O. T. Club (2, 3).

Class: Baseball (1), Captain Football (1, 2); Tug of War (2); Basketball (1, 2, 3); Tennis (1); Executive Committee (1, 2, 3); Volley Ball (3).

A WORD IN PASSING

Lebanon Valley Academy was established in 1866 and has for many years served well the purpose for which it was instituted. Due to the present conditions, by action of the College Faculty, the Academy will be discontinued and 1922 will mark the close of its career.

Its passing does not mark the closing or ending of many sweet and happy memories enjoyed by those, who, while securing an Academy training, have been privileged at the same time to have an association with College men and women and to learn their ideals and principles of living—and the days spent in thy nurture, old L. V. A., will e'er be cherished and long remembered.

Clioian Literary Society

In the fifty-first year of its existence the Clioian Literary Society has accomplished a greater end than those who were her charter members could dare to hope.

With the ever increasing number of women students enrolled in our College, it became necessary to decide in what manner those enrolled should receive their literary training. After much debating and discussion it was decided that Clio should give up some of her most noble and best for the formation of a nucleus for a second literary society. Fourteen women well trained in the methods and manners for the development of such an organization withdrew their membership from Clio and formed the strong foundation for one sister society.

Clio stands for all that which is noble and strong in the life of the women of America; for the development of the cultural life. The varied programs, original in their development, give the student an opportunity for self-expression in whatever subject is of most interest to her.

To those who have never received the benefits and advantages of such an organization, it may be of interest to know that those who have received its benefits are unfaltering in their praise.

Thus as the years roll onward may the loyal daughters of Clio ever lead the way to higher things with the aid of the beacon light "Virtute et Fide."

Delphian Literary Society

In the year 1921, owing to the large increase in the number of co-eds, it was thought advisable to have two girls' literary societies. Heretofore, all were members of the Clonian Literary Society and on account of the overcrowded conditions, interest seemed to be lacking. As competition is an incentive to bring forth the best efforts of an individual, a new society was organized November 4, 1921.

The name given this new and promising organization was the Delphian. Five Seniors, nine Juniors, twelve Sophomores and fourteen Freshmen, making a total enrollment of forty, comprise the membership. Bound together by loyalty, the cooperation manifested by the members was excellent. With the motto "Know Thyself" as a guide each girl has tried faithfully to fulfill her place. Struggling under strange and difficult conditions, the girls have made the first year of the Delphian Literary Society a successful one. Realizing the responsibility that was placed upon each member the girls did splendid work in putting their society on a par with the other societies of Lebanon Valley. Every Delphian member can be justly proud of the achievements which were accomplished; for this organization has been made a live and active one.

Attractive and educational programs were arranged in which debates of timely interest, current events, essays, discussions, readings and musical numbers were given in a splendid manner. The Society aims to make her ideals real and strives to cultivate literary and musical talent. Besides, the Delphian Society trains the girl for future life and the training and discipline every member receives in the Literary Society enables her to cope with the difficulties of life. The social side is not neglected for several social activities were enjoyed, which furnished fine entertainment and also created a goodly amount of interest.

Professor Beatty, the admirable advisor of the Delphian Literary Society, deserves much credit for his never-tiring aid in starting and keeping going this organization. His excellent advice and counsel has inspired the girls to make rapid progress.

The first Public Program given by the Delphian members on February the seventeenth is worthy of much praise. The theme, George Washington, was a noble subject and was handled in a marvelous way. It could be easily seen that this was a great accomplishment due to the loyalty and cooperation of every individual member of the Society.

The Delphian Society holds her sessions weekly in the room above the Library and because of the recent forming of this new society, no permanent home has been secured. But in a few years the girls expect to have a beautifully furnished hall of their own. Bright prospects are in store for the organizers and later members of the Delphian Literary Society. May every Delphian be guided by "Know Thyself" and then she will be true to the trust put in her and true to the task put before her.

Phikokosmian Literary Society

Founded many years ago when the college was in its infancy, Philo has never lost sight of the noble ideals and high purposes of her founders. An urgent need of the college in those early days was well filled and the society has never failed to fill an equally important position thru all the years since that time. She has stood for the symmetrical development of the young manhood of the land, an especial emphasis being laid upon the qualities that go to make up superior manhood ideals, confidence, application, rationality, control and reserve. Striving consistently thru the medium of her public programs and private business sessions, she has instilled to no small degree these qualities.

Above all things, the world needs trained leadership. Industry, science, politics and the professions are crying and searching for the leadership that will be able to assume great and enormous responsibilities and accomplish great things. To the average American college falls the responsibility of producing these men—the great percent of these supermen must come from her ranks. The classroom has been doing much to wipe away the enigma and answer the demand and the influence of professors and instructors throughout the land has been without definition or limit. But—sharing the responsibility of the classroom with almost equal importance is the literary society of the college. It is the experimental station where the theories evolved in the classroom are tested, tried and put into use. It is the medium of exchange from the abstract to the concrete without which all can be nothing but naught.

And just this is the office that old Philo has been filling in the life of Lebanon Valley College. She has been serving well in the past, she is striving hard at the present and she holds high and noble aspirations for the future. With inspiring traditions following from the past and with an active and energetic personnel in the present she is setting out to do the things which have as yet never been accomplished.

And in the struggle for her goal, a watchword stands before her—warning, challenging, uplifting—ESSE QUAM VIDERI—‘To be, rather than to seem to be.’

Kalozeteau Literary Society

In the year 1870 a few men, realizing that conditions in the existing organizations were becoming static, due to non-competition, and because of a situation arising which to their minds was sufficient warrant, organized the Kalozeteau Literary Society. The object as stated by the founders was "the culture of the members and the propagation of knowledge, morality and friendship." As the aim of the organization is stated in its motto, the words "Palma non sine Pulvere," were chosen and indeed do we realize in this great reconstruction period of the world's history there are "no palms without dust."

Kalo, true to its object and aims, endeavors to instill into each of its members a sense of obligation not only to themselves but also to their fellow-men. More than this—that nothing great or good can be accomplished that will call forth any degree of reward unless there is a definite constructive work on the part of each individual.

The literary sessions consist of selected varieties of literary numbers while musical productions help to develop the musical talents. The business sessions acquaint the members with the proper manner of conducting meetings according to Parliamentary Law. Besides, Kalo always observes its anniversary when a public program is rendered in Engle Hall.

Many of her members joined the ranks of Uncle Sam during the Great War and several lie beneath the "Poppy Fields of Flanders," dying as they had lived, true to their country and to their flag, ever bearing the ideals of their society. Now in the great period of reconstruction, may we be true to the supreme task before us, ever mindful to those words—"Palma non Sine Pulvere."

A Day

A sunrise, and the glow of yon bright orb;
A sunset, and the soft pink afterglow
Is not a day;
Nor yet three repasts, nor the hours of dark.

A chatter, and the merriment of spring;
A curfew, and the tunes of some lone dirge
Are in each day;
A glisten of a laugh, a gleam of tears.

A rumble, and the clank of bitter strife;
A calmness, and a going down of waves
Come every day;
A sweetness, and for each a bitterness.

A duty, and the doing's rich reward;
Neglect, and idle wasting but not ease,
All in one day;
And health and sickness, poverty and pride.

A medley! What array of colors bright!
A sounding! What a harmony combines
The whole of day.
The universe brings gifts to make a day.

—C. W. Hiser, '22.

The passing of 1921-22 marks the close of a very successful season for the Y. W. C. A. of Lebanon Valley College. At the beginning of the year the members of the organization set certain definite goals which they intended to reach at the close of the season. They surely can be commended for the manner in which they have completed their aims. Along with their aims for a better moral and spiritual college group of girls, they have been splendidly successful in financial affairs, and this season, with its many achievements, can well be termed the best season that the Y. W. C. A. has enjoyed for many years.

Organized a number of years ago, the Young Men's Christian Association of Lebanon Valley College has filled a definite and evergrowing need among the men and boys of the institution. It has flourished as the practical side of the classroom, which supplies the theory for life and living. First in religious affairs, first in social life, first in the culture of the intellect and first in the development of the physical aspect, it has played a part the importance of which cannot be estimated in the sum total of the advance of and success of the Alma Mater. The challenge to the future is without parallel. Will the men of Lebanon Valley accept the challenge?

Our band exists for the purpose of developing our spiritual lives with the view to equip ourselves for the task to which we have been called. To become better acquainted with the Christ who died to save us that we may more perfectly present Him to those who have heard little or nothing of the life that he came to be, and to help those who are sincerely trying to find their place in the will of God, that they may not ignore the importance of sending the gospel into all the world, even though they themselves may have another part in the great plan of God apart from going into a foreign field in person to tell the message of Him who alone can meet the need of a needy world. We are affiliated with the general Movement that we may profit by their suggestions and co-operation, and that we may be a unit in a most worthy world-wide task.

Mathematics, the "handmaiden of all sciences," had its origin in the dim mists of prehistoric antiquity. When the historic era opens, we find man with a sense of numbers, elementary as it was. It is the earliest of all sciences, and for many of the human race it holds second place to none. It numbers its devotees to the  $n$ th power, and bit by bit new discoveries are made and new possibilities are opened up for this Queen of Sciences. But, while it has in it the aspects of grandeur, mathematics also sometimes plays simple tricks which are interesting as well as amusing, and it is not always as somber as it might be represented.

The Mathematical Round Table at Lebanon Valley College was organized to gain a better and more intimate acquaintance with Madame Mathematics in both her aspects. Monthly meetings are held, where the grand and genial are set in contrast for the general edification. But we must confess that the life of the organization centers about our beloved Professor Lehman, whose untiring efforts and devotion to it cannot be enumerated in mere words. The Mathematical Round Table is not exclusive in membership, but invites all lovers as well as those indifferent to the charms of mathematics, to join us in "thinking God's thoughts after Him."

HENRY L. WILDER
Coach

“Stubby as he is termed by everyone, hails from the city of Lebanon, where he is a prominent citizen. He came to us with years of practical experience as a coach, having served at Lebanon Valley several years ago.

Coach Wilder whipped a wonderful team into shape—a team that was imbued with a fighting spirit of indomitable will, one that fought Georgetown almost to a standstill, losing only by a break of the game. Too much credit cannot be given to Wilder, who drove the men, rain or shine, and filled them with a desire to uphold the reputation of their Alma Mater on the Gridiron.

Richard Smith, Captain, 1921

Adam Miller, Manager, 1921

Review of the Season

While Lebanon Valley did not have what might be termed a successful season, yet with all the defeats which they went through against teams that were the best in the country, out-weighted and out-numbered, they always displayed that fighting spirit which has made L. V.'s teams famous in the past.

Coach Wilder deserves much credit and praise and with a lighter schedule and a larger squad would have made quite a different story.

The season of 1922 has very bright prospects as only two men will be lost to the team which gives Coach Wilder practically the same material upon which to work.

The students will support and co-operate with the team for a season that will bring their Alma Mater to the front ranks in athletics.

RICHARD H. SMITH, "L"

Age 19; End; Second Year; Weight 160.

"Dick" surely deserves much praise as our worthy football captain and we honor him for having been such. At the position of end, "Dick" led the team from whistle to whistle with good earnest efforts to win or die and indeed he never shirked but ever did his complete duty well.

FERDINAND L. BECK "L"

Age 20; Center; Second Year; Wt. 190.

"Ferdinand" played a hard consistent game and very few plays ever came through him. When in a game only the final whistle or some extreme injury could cause him to stop playing. As Captain-elect and with the knowledge of past principles which "Ferd" employed we are well assured of a great year in 1922.

WARREN H. FAKE, "L"

Age 22; Guard; Second Year; Wt. 193.

"Fake" was one of the most dependable men on the line. He was a stickler who never knew when to quit. His ability to break up interference and to tackle the runner is worthy of mention. The loss of "Fake" will be keenly felt next year.

RALPH H. HOMAN, "L"

Age 23; Halfback; Third Year; Wt. 157.

Much was expected of "Nuts" at the beginning of the season and he showed his old time pepper until injuries forced him out of the game. We are sorry to lose him but we all look forward to "Nut" Jr.

RUSSEL BEHMAN "L"

Age 21; Tackle; Third Year; Wt. 200.

"Bull" is really one of the best men who ever put on an L. V. uniform. His ability to kick, throw passes and back up the line has earned for him that which will always be remembered at his Alma Mater.

FREDERICK LAUSTER "L"

Age 22; Guard; First Year; Wt. 200.

"Fat" was one of our aggressive guards who time after time broke thru the enemies' line and nailed the runner for a loss. We are looking forward to a more successful season for "Fat" than any other he has ever realized.

HENRY HOMAN, "L"

Age 20; Quarterback; Second Year; Weight 145.

"Hennie" our diminutive Quarterback famous for his short off tackle plunges and his wonderful broken field running. He was without a peer in the art of catching punts.

EDGAR WHISTLER, "L"

Age 20; Tackle; Second Year; Wt. 195.

"Ed," our Altoona boy has the reputation of making the biggest hole in the line of any man in the team. A great deal more is expected of "Ed" next year.

REUBEN COHEN "L"

Age 21; Halfback; 2nd Year; Wt. 150.
"Rube," one of our men of the back-field who had a way of running all his own, by which he broke through for many long runs.

WILLIAM WEUSCINSKI "L"

Age 20; End; Second Year; Wt. 160.
"Bill" hails from Steelton where they make 'em hard. His versatility was displayed when he was shifted from end to halfback in the middle of the year due to an injury to one of our men.

GEORGE DANKER "L"

Age 20; Fullback; 2nd Year; Wt. 175.
"Joe" was by far the best defensive man behind the line. He always hit them low and hard. Injuries hampered "Joe" toward the end of the season, but through it all he proved himself capable of his position.

WILLIAM WOLFE, "L"

Age 20; Halfback; First Year; Wt. 150.
"Bill" was the best man in the back-field to skirt the ends. Whenever a first down was needed "Bill" took it around for the necessary distance. Within the two remaining years much is looked forward to from him.

WALTER KRAUSE, "L"

Age 21; Halfback; First Year; Wt. 150.

"Walt," the Darby boy who made a position on the team his first year was a fast hard runner, exceptionally good in off tackle plunges.

EMERSON METOXIN, "L"

Age 20; Fullback; First Year; Wt. 160.

"Chief," by hard fighting won his letter. He upheld the reputation of his ancestors by his sterling character whether on the field or not.

FRANK CARPENTER, "L"

Age 20; Guard; Second Year; Wt. 210.

"Fat" came to us late in the season but he soon showed Coach Wilder that he was deserving of a Varsity position. Owing to difficulties "Fat" will be lost to the team for next year.

WILLIAM M. CLARKIN, "L"

Age 20; End; First Year; Weight 160.

"Red," another of our famous Hartford boys was a dead sure tackle and nearly always brought down his man whenever they circled his end.

CLEON MUSSER, "L"

Age 20; Center; First Year; Wt. 170.
"Cleona" said before the army game.
"I crave action." Well, needless to say before the game was over he got action and plenty of it. He was a hard fighting center.

ADAM MILLER "L"

Manager

"Addie" as he is popularly known, hails from Amville and is one of the few day-students who ever became Manager. "Adam" was a tireless worker for the welfare of the team both at home
and on the trips.

The Junior Varsity was composed of a very light crew that took beating after beating on the field in scrimmage against the Varsity. While the season was not what might be termed successful they deserve credit for the plugging determination that they showed throughout the entire season in their attempt to keep our Varsity in condition.

Basket Ball

JOSEPH K. HOLLINGER
Physical Director and Coach

Coach Hollinger, a member and captain of '17's Basketball team came here this year as Physical Director and Basketball Coach from Harvard, where he had charge of one of the teams. "Joe" is well known all over the country in athletics and Basketball in particular. The team he has turned out at L. V. is on a par with any small College team in the country, even though they are one of the lightest teams ever representing the school. His introduction of the inter-class league, both in Volleyball and basketball, while not new has been run with more promptness and system than ever before.

Prof. Hollinger commands the admiration of every Lebanon Valley man for his squareness, ability and sincerity. He is in every respect a man's man.

Reuben Cohen, Captain, 1921-22.
Russel Bowman, Manager, 1921-22.

Our Basketball season started rather poorly not in respect to the way in which the team played but in that all the breaks were against them. Most of the early season games were played away from home. The latter part of the year was more successful for out of the last eight games we won six and lost only two, and these two were very close ones, besides they were not played at home.

Much praise goes to Captain Cohen for the strong finish of a season which we were afraid would be unsuccessful.

Our next year's team will be composed of all veterans as none of the men will be lost through graduation. 1922-23 has very bright prospects for one of the greatest teams ever turned out at Lebanon Valley.

REUBEN COHEN, "L"
CAPTAIN; FORWARD.

"Rube," one of the cleverest dribblers on the team is also a wonderful shot. An accident prevented "Rube" from participating in all of the games. He is a hard fighter in every game.

WILLIAM WOLFE, "L"
FORWARD

"Bill," whose second year on the team was highly successful, caged more field goals and fouls than any one on the team. He very seldom misses when under the basket and has a fine percentage in shooting foul goals.

WALTER WOLF, "L"
CENTER

"Walt," our dependable center, played his usual consistent game, although not very tall, he nearly always was able to obtain the tap-off. This was Walter's second year on the team.

HENRY HOMAN, "L"
GUARD

"Hennie," our midget, is one of the fastest men on the squad. He is very small and light but no matter how big they come they don't go away with many field goals. He is a fast floor worker.

WILLIAM M. CLARKIN, "L"
GUARD

"Red" is considered our best guard. It is almost impossible to get away with the ball when Clarkin's long arms are anywhere near. It is his first year on the team and great things are expected of him next year.

EMERSON METOXIN, "L"
FORWARD

"Chief," our Indian forward, who has entered many games and brought the crowd to their feet with his beautiful shots, deserves much credit for his splendid work. Metoxin is also a good foul shooter. It is also his first year on the team.

RUSSEL BOWMAN, "J"
MANAGER

"Russ" managed the team in a splendid manner and surely deserves his letter for his services. His democratic spirit elevated the morale of the entire team.

The Junior Varsity was the strongest it has been for years with men like Behman, Homan, Smith, Kessler, Wenschinski, Perry, Stabley, Krause, Musser, and Heilman.

In many practice games between the Varsity and the Junior Varsity, it was a nip and tuck affair throughout. Their schedule was successful considering the fact that most games were played away from home.

Richard Smith, Captain 1921-22.

R. Hutchinson, Manager 1921-22.

Base Ball

CHARLES S. KELCHNER

Coach

“Pop” as he is popularly known all over the country is the greatest base ball coach that Lebanon Valley has ever had. His experience in Baseball circles is boundless. He has managed some of the best ball clubs in the country outside the major leagues, besides being himself a baseball player of some reputation in his younger days. He now serves Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals as one of his best scouts. Professor is famous for his pep talks, which he gives in mass meetings, etc.

The season of 1921 was highly successful and we feel that the students owe Mr. Kelchner a great debt for the manner in which he made possible such a winning team.

The season of 1921 was considered very successful from the standpoint of the team winning nine games and losing six, and of these six, only one was lost by more than three runs and that to one of the best college teams in the country, viz. Georgetown.

The pitching of Wolf and Witmer is especially noteworthy when considering that in only one game apiece did the opposing team have more than six hits. Captain Moore was the outstanding star of the season, both at the bat and in the field. The season of 1922 looms up very brightly with only three letter men graduating and new material at hand.

The Faculty and Student body appreciates the splendid showing of the team in Baseball during the past season and will support Coach Kehlner and Captain-elect Wolf in their endeavors for a championship team.

Tie for last place, won by the Seniors in an extra game.

Our Inter-Class Basketball and Volleyball Leagues opened its season in the beginning of January. From the very start of the schedule great interest was shown by the student body and also by the Faculty. In Basketball the Seniors and Sophomores displayed their superiority from the very start by jumping into first place. They beat all their opponents but each lost one game to the other and the schedule ended with both tie for first honors in the number of games won, while the Seniors had an advantage of having scored three points more than their opponents. In a post season game, with the gym packed with a howling mob of humanity, the Seniors nosed out the Sophomores by the close score of 15-14. This game was the fastest and most furious of any seen on the gym floor in years, the Sophs being ahead all through the game till the last few minutes of play, when the Seniors by a magnificent display of fighting spirit tied and won the game when Stabley made good his last foul goal attempt.

The Volley Ball league was an introduction of an entirely new sport to Lebanon Valley. The games were all closely played affairs as no team had any previous experience in the game. The Juniors, who seemed to take the most interest in the sport, and who were hopelessly outclassed in Basket Ball came through with five straight games, losing the last one to the Freshman team, but having made sure the Inter-Class Volley Ball Championship.

Too much credit cannot be given to Coach Hollinger, who carried through the most successful Inter-Class Basket Ball League that Lebanon Valley has ever had, as well as introducing a sport that has become very popular to all the students. We extend our congratulations to Mr. Hollinger and hope for an even more successful Class League next year.

THE SOPHOMORE-FRESHMAN GAME

In the annual Sophomore-Freshman inter-class game of Basket Ball, the Sophomore team completely outclassed their rivals, the Freshman group. The Freshmen fought hard, but could do little against a team which was made up largely of Varsity men. Homan starred for the Sophomore team, while Perry played a good game for the Freshmen. The score was 45-15.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Varsity

Our Varsity team played two games in all, both on foreign floors, winning the one and losing the other. The material for a good Team was present here but owing to difficulties we were unable to have a regular schedule. The girls were under the care of Miss Gladys Fencil, the Girls' Physical director, and she coached them in a very creditable manner. We hope that next year we will have a regular schedule, as none of the regular players will graduate.

INTER-CLASS

Sophomore-Freshman Game

The annual affair between the Sophomores and the Freshmen was played in the Alumni Gym with Fields of Lebanon officiating. From the start it developed into a fast and interesting game not withstanding the fact that the Sophomores were superior throughout the entire game. The Freshmen are to be congratulated for the manner in which they played when we realize that very few of their number had ever played basketball before this specific event. The final score was 15-5 in favor of the Sophomores. Steiss was the leading star of the Sophomore group, while Bowman starred for the Freshman team.

In the Inter-Class game between the Sophomores and the Juniors the latter team came through definitely victorious, having won by the score of 24-4. By winning this game the Junior Girls proved themselves to be the champions of the Girls for the Sophomores later defeated the Freshmen decidedly. It is to be regretted that no continuous schedule had been arranged for the girls, however we hope to realize our ambitions next year.

The Girls with the Long Tresses played the Bobbed-haired girls, the proceeds of the game going to the Barbers' Association for future reference by any of those participating. The Girls with the Long Tresses won by the score of 15-5.

Minor Sports

TENNIS

Our Tennis team composed of Stabley, E. Stabley, Glick and Herr, played two matches, losing the first one to Moravian College by a close score. Glick and Stabley played a very good game as did the other members of the team, considering the fact that this was our first attempt in Tennis. In the Alumni game played on May Day at home we won by a wide margin. A little practice and cooperation ought to bring out a fine team for the coming season. We are well assured of this and we wish them luck in their efforts to represent Lebanon Valley in a worthy manner.

VOLLEY BALL

This new sport, introduced by Coach Hollinger in the Inter-Class league made such an impression that a Varsity Volley Ball Team was organized. This team consisted of Bowman, Captain; Witmer, Smith, Miller, Burtner, Smuck and Herr. Although playing only two games, and those with a club which is well considered the best in Pennsylvania, they played with much pep and enthusiasm although in face of defeat. We expect the interest to increase and we believe that Lebanon Valley will have a team in this sport of very worthy mention.

Several other sports were attempted this past year but either because of the lack of interest, funds or material they were not carried through. Among those sports were Wrestling, Track and Soccer. Our Track Team attended one meet at which they scored two points but immediately a lack of interest was manifested and the sport was dropped. It is indeed a shame that this is true but we still hope that we can again reclaim that excellent standing procured for us by the boys of 1914-16. At present the material for track does not promise very encouraging results, but with a coach and that old time spirit, Lebanon Valley will witness an excellent season in this sport.

Lebanon Valley College Summer School

MT. GRETNA

Lebanon Valley College recently extended her work to include a Summer Session to be held at Mt. Gretna, Pa. Under the direction of Prof. Beatty a well organized system was planned and successfully carried out during the summer of 1921. The Faculty was composed of such persons as Dr. Gossard, Pres.; Professor Lehman, Professor of History; Prof. Derickson, Professor of the Biological Sciences; Prof. Grimm, Professor of Education and Mathematics; Prof. Christian Gingrieh, Professor of Social Sciences; Prof. Herring, Professor of Chemistry; Prof. Beatty, Professor of English; Prof. Butterwick, Professor of Bible and Philosophy; Walter E. Severance, Professor of Latin and Education, and Mrs. Mary C. Green, Professor of French. Indeed this strong Faculty secured for us an immediate recognition and although there were many of our own students enjoyed the privileges of this session, many other students and teachers also took advantage of these splendid conditions at this place which was so splendidly located. Not only did this organization give the immediate results desired by the one teaching and the ones attending, but it also has established for Lebanon Valley a much wider and broader reputation and has greatly developed her possibilities for a great future both in her winter and summer sessions.

We commend the work of those organizing the school, we wish to support it to the best of our ability and we hope that the development of the same may ever be strong, noble and for the distinct welfare of our Alma Mater.

It is indeed unfortunate that the section of this annual devoted to the Alumni of Lebanon Valley College should be so limited. Many and worthy have been those who upon leaving the halls of Lebanon Valley have entered into every type of work that employs mankind. In Science and Medicine, in Oratory and Art, in Teaching and Preaching, in Law and Politics, in every branch of work that life offers, the Alumni of Lebanon Valley have made and will continue to make this institution honored, respected, worthy and prized among the many other institutions of her kind throughout the United States. It is the Alumnus, not the student who can make his Alma Mater of any lasting importance or influence. The true manner in which a student meets his temporary training which an institution offers can only be measured by the manner in which he meets that for which he has been trained. Realizing therefore the important position which the Alumni of any institution holds for the direct welfare of the same, we wish to consider them in our present undertakings.

The greatest thing of which the world is in need today is "Education" and there are really only two ways by which this great need can be met. These are the Church and the School. Realizing this, the Alumni section will be devoted to the splendid manner in which Lebanon Valley is meeting this need through her Alumni.

Lebanon Valley Alumni

The late Dr. James P. Wickersham, a distinguished educator, once said, "The most delicate and difficult task that God has placed in human hands is the education of his own species." If this be true the Alumni of Lebanon Valley College are largely represented in doing God's most difficult work assigned to men.

It is always difficult to secure an accurate list of the Alumni with their professions, but taking the Roster of Alumni published in the Alumni Quarterly of February 14, 1920 as a basis, it appears that approximately two hundred and sixty-two graduates of the college were at that time engaged in some form of educational work.

The largest percentage of teachers is naturally found in the later classes, teaching being considered a stepping stone to other professions as well as the best means of securing reasonable remuneration immediately after graduation from college. Thus the class of 1919 with a membership of forty-one in the literary department reported thirty-one teachers, five pursuing studies in other institutions and the remaining ones in divers occupations. The class of 1918 with a membership of forty-three at that time recorded twenty-three teachers. The class of 1917 also graduated forty-three students. Of these, strange to say, exactly the same number were teachers. Comparing these with the earlier classes it is of interest to note that while many graduates remained in the profession of teaching, the percentage is much smaller. The class of 1907 with a membership of twenty-eight is reported as having only seven teachers. Even then the teachers are more numerous than any other profession, that of preaching coming next with six. The class of 1901 with nineteen living graduates has five educators, five preachers, two physicians, five business men, one Y. M. C. A. Secretary and one married woman.

Taking the total number engaged in educational work, the Roster shows four College Presidents: Dr. Clippinger of Otterbein; Dr. Rupp of York; Dr. Cowling of Carlton and Dr. Holsopple of Blue Ridge College. At least five graduates hold chairs in Theological Seminaries. On the list are nineteen College and University professors. But by far the largest list is that of men and women connected with the public school work. There are five Superintendents of schools, including one county superintendent, one principal of a Pennsylvania State Normal School and thirty-two principals, High School principals, and principals of Academies, scattered throughout half a dozen states with the far greater number in Pennsylvania.

The problem of the college as related to the educational work of the State of Pennsylvania is made clear by these figures. A greater number of her graduates are engaged in educational work in Pennsylvania than in any other single profession or business.

That the Alumni Association is awake to this fact is evidenced by the enthusiasm and interest shown in the Round Table Conference held during last Commencement week at which educational problems were under discussion.

What Lebanon Valley needs among other things is an educators "bloc" among the Alumni which will develop an educational consciousness that will compel a continuation of high educational standards in the college and which will unite in closer fellowship the graduates who are engaged in teaching and which will also bring about more intimate relations between the college and the Department of Public Instruction in Harrisburg.

Ministerial Graduates

Among the noted and renowned characters that have received diplomas from Lebanon Valley College are about one hundred and fifty Ministerial graduates. These servants of the Most High God are modest and unassuming men. They neither crave honor nor seek distinction among their fellow men. But their feet have traversed the shores of distant lands and their messages of peace and salvation have been heard around the world. The eloquence of these pulpit orators has not only turned the stream of human life but has changed the course of nations. Their wise prophecies, their lofty ambitions, and their exemplary lives have attracted the attention of potentates and changed the modes of the people. Of this world's goods they have not shared abundantly, but they have laid up for themselves treasures in heaven. Long years after their itinerary has been completed and the broken threads have been caught up by others, generations will rise up and call them blessed.

Most of these servants in the ministry have made their contributions to the world and to humanity through the channels of the United Brethren Church, while a few have found paths of usefulness leading into other Brotherhoods. Those whom the United Brethren Church has honored with her highest official gift are Bishop W. H. Washinger, D.D., from the class of 1891, and Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., from the class of 1905.

Two of her sons are now college Presidents, namely Rev. W. G. Clippinger, D.D., '99, President of Otterbein College, and Rev. Donald J. Cowling, D.D., '02, President of Carlton College.

Seven graduates, although retaining their Ministerial credentials, have found their field of work in the teaching profession. Rev. S. D. Faust, D.D., '89, and Rev. J. Balmer Showers, D.D., '14, are teaching in Bonebrake Theological Seminary. Rev. Elias H. Sneath, D.D., LL.D., '81, professor in Yale University. Rev. Raymond P. Daugherty, A.M., Ph.D., '97, Professor in Goucher College. Rev. R. R. Butterwick, D.D., '01, Professor in Lebanon Valley College. Rev. Alfred T. Summer, '02, Professor in the Government School at Freetown, West Africa. Rev. Rufus LeFever, '17, Professor in Stivers High School, Dayton, Ohio.

Two of her noble sons are making their contributions through the editorial columns of the Sunday School Literature of the United Brethren Church, Dr. W. O. Fries, '82, and Dr. John S. Owen, '03.

Rev. Sammel G. Zeigler '11, has been chosen by his brethren to be the Executive Secretary of Foreign Missions. While Rev. Charles W. Shoop, '08 and Rev. J. Stewart Innerst, '16, are missionaries in China and Rev. George M. Richter, '09, is a missionary in Africa.

If space permitted it would be pleasant indeed to recite the names of faithful pastors who are doing heroic work all along the line.

While the roll of these pastors has not been called yet the positions which they occupy are none the less important nor are they the less worthy. Of the one hundred and fifty ministerial graduates, about fourteen have answered to roll call and now rest from their labors.

With the passing of years may the depleted ranks be filled with other consecrated and loyal sons of Lebanon Valley College.

Purpose: Overstrained by the burdens of the classroom recitations, taxed to the utmost in fulfilling our social and co-educational duties, fatigued by the strenuous contortions imposed by the physical directory of the institution, and in short, overwhelmed by the rush of collegiate life and riotous living, this most honorable and meritorius organization has come into being for sole express and implied purpose of relieving the intense stress and strain thus bringing about temporary resuscitation for each and every member in order that the ordeal of the following week may be weathered without the loss of more than ten pounds. Having dedicated ourselves to so noble an aspiration and determined to fulfill to the letter our heterogeneous obligations, we proclaim to the world the discovery of a great remedy for all modern ills and discrepencies, namely that of rhetorical and grammatical exegesis.

Functionary Systematization: Order of Ceremonies.

Called to order promptly on the striking of ten bells on every Friday night of the winter term, the rajahs assume their respective positions about the oriental circle in the center of which reposes the Grand Rajah. The Wajkoc diction is employed so that none of the poor creatures of the outside world may know or discover what is being perpetrated, and what is being contemplated for later actualization. Herein, then, the most serious and profound of all subjects, in all the entire universe are given due and serious consideration to the ultimate betterment and ennoblement of the company of illustrious rajahs. Reason, judgment, foresight, oratory, vision, imagination, introspection and superinduced common sense are some of the product of the organization.

This organization is for the moral, spiritual and religious upbuilding of all freshmen. It has an enviable record. It brings about the callation of the Underclassmen for a regard of the truth and noble aspiration of obeying the Rules of the Men's Senate.

We might begin our joenlar peregrinations by asking the question,—“What is a Joke?” The French have a saying that “the world is full of fools, and he who would not see one, must shut himself up in his room and break his looking glass.” We say the same of humor. The mirror is one sure method of the discovery of a joke. The gentle art in life consists in picking out the humorous part of one’s own nature and enjoying it.—

Behold man, the crown and center of creation! The subduer of all nature! He has bridged the chasms, tunneled mountains, traveled the heavens,—in a word, he has accomplished the impossible, and walks with his head among the clouds.— But there lies a little insignificant banana peel, and down he goes, losing all his dignity, equanimity and his sense of the infinite. No man is exempt, be he a Bostonian, a Kaiser or Rube Cohen.

The fool worth while,—
Is the fool who can smile, (Never used before)

Faust: "He had three wives and he was blind."

Taken from an article written by Carl Hiser last year:

"We arrived at the station, where we were met by my friend Mr. Crim, now in Africa, serving Christ and the Church and a number of his friends."

If examinations are a true test of a pupil's knowledge, the Juniors, Sophomores, and also the Freshmen who submitted the following answers in English tests last year are to be pitied.—

Addison was very important, but on account of his religion he was buried in West Minister Abbey.

Wordsworth wrote hymns and Odes such as Ode "Immatations of Immortality."

Byron's writings are melancholy and sad. They are monontious.

Dionysos was a Greeecian man who donated the theatres for writers to play in the theatre.

Euripides was a great scholar and thinker, also a philosophalist.

Doer's Lament was written by Widsith: It is an epic poem.

Mallory wrote Morte de Arthur, he completed this in 1647 and Caxton published them.

Interludes are poems of satire, for example, Piers Plowman.

A fallacy is when a man is committed from which he did not do.

Iteration is the interesting point in the thought.

A writer of images is one that has an image or odor in his mind

"The doctor says that I have camel's feet."

"How's that?"

"They've gone a long time without water."

A POPULAR GAL IS MARY

Mary is a popular name for girls. Our unofficial census enumerator states that there are more Marys per square mile of population than there are Smiths in the telephone book. Ever since she took her little lamb to school, Mary has been a favorite heroine of jazz verses. Mary has become the owner of everything imaginable in the rhyming lines of the poets (?). Mary verses have been shown on the movie screen of the day, films to delight the old as well as the young have been made. Just to make our readers merry we introduce some verses about our friend Mary.

Honey Love.

Mary had a swarm of bees,
She loved their buzzing lives;
They too, loved Mary, 'cause
Their Mary had the hives.

CURTAIN TIME

Mary wore two silken sox,
Rolled down below her knee;
But Mary once had chicken-pox;
Which spoiled the scenery.

SANDWICH ISLES

Mary had a little lamb
Between two hunks of bread,
The S. P. C. A. did not complain,
Because the lamb was dead.

Prof. Frounick: "What is the Latin race?"

Marie: "It's a race between a Latin pony and the Teacher's goat."

Uncle Jess: "Well, Johnny, How do you spell giraffe?"

Nephew: "G-ir-a-f-e."

U. J.: "The dictionary spells it with two f's."

N.: "Well you asked me how I spell it."

"Did you ever stop to think—"

"Of—"

"This, that it is a wise child that knows its own father—likewise, a wise cork that knows its own pop."

Phi Beta Gazinkas

This newly organized but yet unchartered fraternity (founded at L. V. C.) is growing faster with the passing of each day. Several months ago it was one of the weakest organizations in existence, but it is now the most powerful and its membership is larger than that of any other three fraternities combined.

The object of the Phi Beta Gazinkas is to further and improve the art of saying very little in ten times that many words; or in other terms, usurping several hours in which to volubly discuss the small end of nothing whittled down to a point.

It is required of every candidate for membership, that he have a powerful line of Annville English and have perfect control over it. He must be of the progressive type, being willing at any time to donate a few spare hours to practicing with any of his fraternity brothers.

The Phi Beta Gazinkas is the monopolizing fraternity of the Men's dormitory and is ever gaining popularity. The initiation fees are nil and the dues endless.

Prof. Gingrich—(in Economics 1)—

“Why don't they build buildings 250 stories high?”

Faust: “Atmospheric Pressure.”

“WHY ARE WE HERE?”

Absent-mindedness, frivolity, ambition and vigilance are the qualities that fill our penitentiaries, according to stories of four convicts.—

“I'm here,” said the pick-pocket, “as the result of a moment of abstraction.”

“And I,” added the burglar, “through nothing, but taking advantage of an opening which was offered in a large mercantile establishment.”

“And I,” said the incendiary, “because of an unfortunate habit of making light of things.”

“The reason I am here,” chimed in the forger, “is because I attempted to make a name for myself.”

“Your daughter is so different from most girls.—She's so sweetly unsophisticated.

“Yes, She's all of that. Why she thinks that B. V. D. is a university degree.”

The Professor had written on the back of a theme:

“Please write more legibly.”

Next Day: “Prof., what is that you put on my theme?”

Heard in the Y. M. P. A. circles:

I waited for thee, Queen, and thou

Didst send another in thy place.

What good's a three-spot to me now?

I've got the Ten, Jack, King and Ace.

A NEW SCIENTIST

Grimm: “Who was Voltaire, and for what was he noted?”

Student: “He was a famous scientist. He discovered the unit of electrical current, the volt.”

A Librarian's Lament: She was young; she was pretty. She wore the traditional tortoiseshell campus windshields. And she had the American e-o-ed's blithesome assurance as she stepped up to the library window.

"Oh, look!" she said. "I've got to read some books. It's for my English VI semi-finals. Look, have you got 'The Four Horsemen with the Erysipelas,' by that Spanish caveman? And I want a book of poetry too. Something kind of jazzy. See?"

WHOZAT?

I've heard of Byron, Shelly, Keats,

Of Kipling, Temyson,

But one thing always worried me

Who is that bird, Anon?

Her eyes were soft and dreamy. Her hair of softest brown. Her gown was exquisite in its charm and simplicity, and enhanced by the dim evening light.

Would this fairy creature dance with him?

"Naw," she said, "I'll dance wid de guy wot brung me."

"Did you cut yourself?"

"No, the knife jumped off the table and bit me."

Prof. Grimm—"What is a unit of time?"

Paul Leber—"The unit of time is a second kept in a bell-jar at Washington."

A Parting Word

To 1922:

Four years L. V. has nurtured you, and now Fair 22—
Strong, sturdy and stalwart for the fight of life—
You pass from out these halls, to rely upon yourself.
In life's hard fight may you be true, sincere, and ever pressing on,
Reach true Success, which will repay and worthily
The tender care your Alma Mater gave you.
To each of you this sincere wish, Fare—

“FARE THEE WELL”

To 1924:

Gay, happy and carefree yet vigorous, brave and true,
Eager for the contest and the future,
We wish for each of you,

“THE BEST OF LUCK.”

To 1925:

This little maxim:

One cannot be a good upper classman,
Before they have been a good under classman.
